2. Declaration on slavery and human trafficking

2.1 Dō University has core values that underpin everything we do.

We are committed to managing our business in a responsible and in accordance with the high standards that these values substantiate.

2.2 "Respect and value all people" and "act with honesty" and integrity" are just two of our core values.

Slavery and human trafficking are clearly incompatible with these values.

2.3 We expect the same high standards from our suppliers and those with whom we work.

2.4 Our Group Purchasing Policy helps us consider issues related to modern slavery and human trafficking

people with our suppliers.

2.5 In June 2025 we will write to all suppliers with a

Trade balance for 2025-26 of more than £10,000 applying details of the measures they had taken to ensure that the slavery and human trafficking did not occur within their business and supply chains.

We request copies of all relevant policy documents addressing this issue. We record your responses to ensure that their approach was consistent with ours.

2.6 We will work with our main suppliers to ensure that our approach to slavery and human trafficking is reflected in all our purchases of goods and services, so that neither we nor they are involved in any way, since whether directly or indirectly, in slavery and human trafficking.

3. Our commitment

3.1 We are committed to ensuring that slavery and human trafficking are people have no place in our business or in our supply chain.
